[To be used only for notes, requisitions, etc., not intended for permanent record.]

Diary No. 4257

With reference to instructions (on the office note) to obtain and send the Panchabab" accounts of the late Mahlidoug Taluk, ~~for the year~~ the Vernacular Records say that there are no separate accounts for this head and that this is included in the Bajabab account. They further represent that original accounts will not be given out of the Records and that copies have to be made of such Accounts. ~~to be sent~~

All these accounts are in Maharashtra and it takes a long time to copy them and

As the requisition from the Excise Commr is vague, is it worthwhile to copy ~~them~~ these accounts the usefulness of which is doubtful.

The Excise Commr wants the Accounts. Write pointing out the Maharashtra accounts which gives the details ~~required~~ relating to the Mahalidroog Taluk may be copied & sent. Should the Excise Comr require this record. He may therefore be addressed

Submd yes - Please ask him what accounts he wants & state that the accounts being in Maharashtra it is difficult to procure & copies of them unless they are absolutely necessary
